

1. Sign Up

Sign Up at votefwd.org using a Facebook or Google account, or your email address and a password.

We'll ask for your name, zip code, and some other basics.

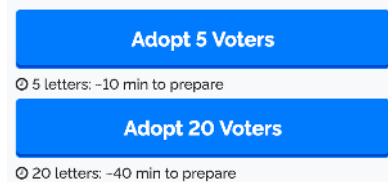

Then we'll review and approve you within 24-48 hours; you'll get an email when your account is ready.

2. "Adopt" Voters

Once your account is approved, you'll get an email. Log in at votefwd.org. You'll be assigned to your nearest active campaign, or you can choose a different one.

Remember that voters you adopt won't be assigned to anyone else. By adopting them, you're committing to send the letters.

3. Download and Print

 Download and print these letters

A button will appear to download a PDF file with letter templates for your adopted voters.

Voter names and addresses and info on the UPS mailbox to use as the return address will be in the downloaded file.

Open the file you downloaded, and print it!
How to print depends on the computer you're using.

6. Mark "Prepared"

On the website, click the green arrow on each completed letter so we know
it's ready to go.

7. Set Aside Until The "Send" Date

Send "Please vote" letters 7 days before the election. Letters are most effective when received right before polls open.

Send "Please register" letters right away, and by the date indicated on the website at the latest.
